

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Getting Started

- God has given us a new spirit. God has given us His Spirit.

Digging In

1. Read through Ezekiel 36:16-32.

2. What does God say in this passage? What does God do?

3. What does God like? What does He hate?

4. What do we learn about man?

5. Read James 4:1-8. Do you relate to this in any way?

What does it mean to be a “friend of the world”?

6. Re-Read Ezekiel 36:25-27

7. Who will “cause you to walk in [God’s] statutes”? You, or God?

8. Since you have God’s Spirit, where do you need to look to receive power for holy living?

9. Read Romans 8:5-7.

How does “setting your mind on the flesh” relate to being ‘friends of the world’ (James 4:4)?

Getting Personal

- Questions for reflection: God’s Spirit brings peace and life. Have you been experiencing this peace? Why or why not?

Feed your mind with the “things of the Spirit!”

- Have you been setting your mind on the Spirit, and on the “things of the Spirit”?
- This week: Who can you share your struggle with the flesh with, and invite to pray with you?
- God’s Spirit yearns to give glory to God’s Name in the world. Is there a book that you can begin reading this week that sets your perspective on His glory in the world? Is there a book you can read from the church library?
- Please contact your pastor if you would like to know more about how you can further lift up God’s Name—by the Spirit of Grace—in the world.
